Dear Alison —
I don't know what to write without this book being censored. So all I just want to say Good Luck in the next 3 (or is it 4) years at B.H.S.
Luv ya always
Carla

P.S. Good Luck with Pat

To Alison
a real swell who
I have had alot of fun with. Be good and don't flirt too much
Love Ya

Mr. Grinnell, Head of Department

GUIDANCE is one of the few departments that accompany every student from his first footsteps to his last at Brookline High School. The help and understanding that the members of the Guidance Department give to the student is an essential part of his progress in the high school. In dedicating this Murivian to the Guidance Department, we are, in a sense, dedicating it to the entire faculty, for the assistance the Guidance Department gives the student throughout his few years here is so representative of the willingness to help, the true spirit of teaching, that every teacher in the high school offers the student. To express our appreciation we dedicate the Murivian of 1965 to the Guidance Department of Brookline High School.

SPRING

"ONLY SIXTY-SEVEN more days till summer vacation!" This cry was part of Spring 1964; it is a part of every spring. But there are other parts between the final countdown and summer vacation, parts that mean "spring" at Brookline High School.

Sports change in the spring from football and basketball to baseball, tennis, swimming, track, and golf. The energies of both participants and observers shift to the spring sports. Results in 1964 were sometimes good, sometimes not very good.

WINS		LOSSES
4	Var. Baseball	14
1	Jr. Var. Baseball	5
4	Var. Tennis	6
1	Spring Track	4
9	Golf	2

The concerts given by Brookline High Students were part of the spring. Our band played here at Brookline and then at Springfield, Vermont. Then came the Quadrangle Concert, which represents the combined efforts of the entire music department. It rained and the quadrangle moved to the gym. The concert did not suffer in the transfer. Last year's concert was no exception to the annual success of this spring event.

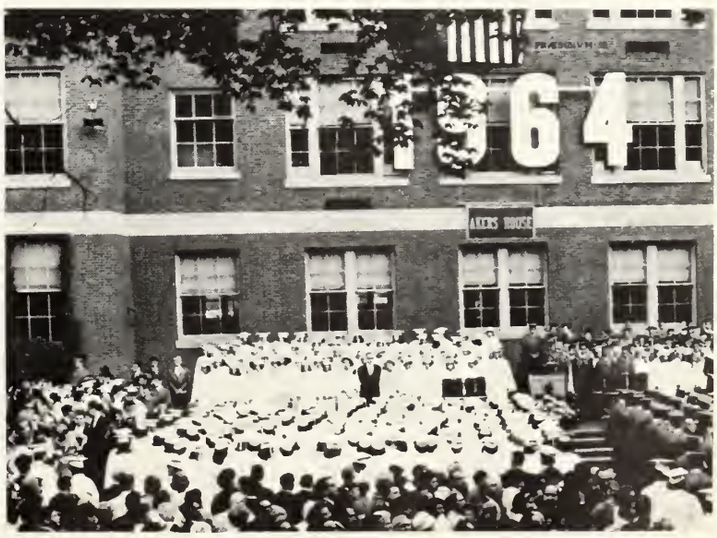
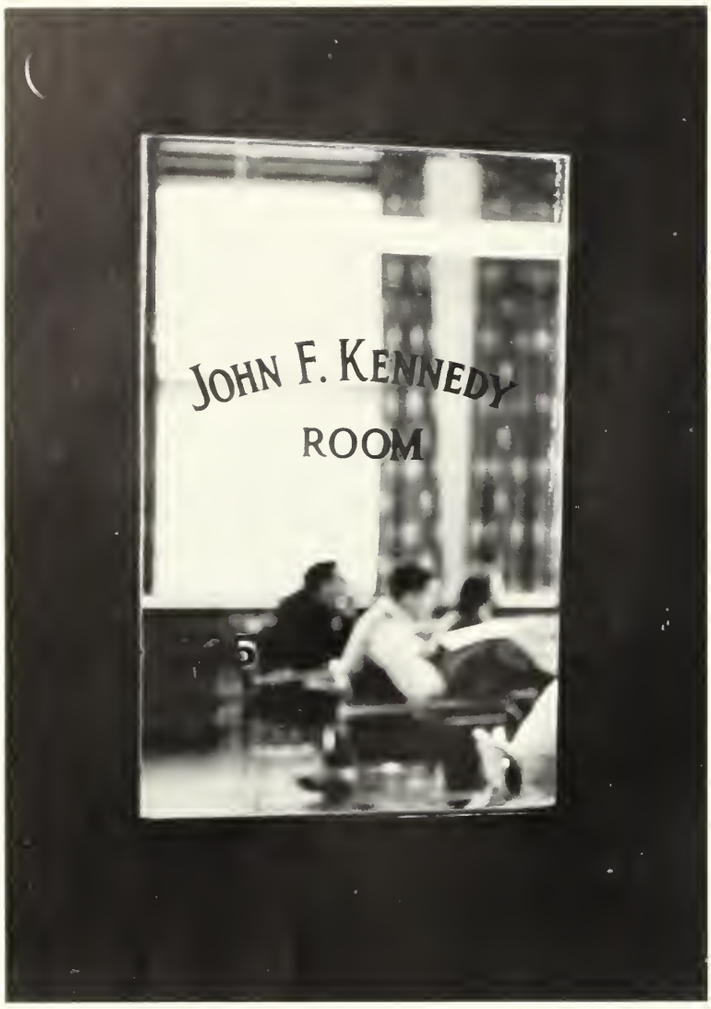
There is much, though, that has been left out of last year's spring. No one could get a single good picture of a daydream. Daydreams were part of Spring 1964, though. Their symptoms could be seen everywhere. Teachers were probably the first to notice the blank stares on the students' faces as their eyes met the sun through open windows. Not so many people hurried across the bridges to the next class. Slow steps are hard to photograph. Nor could we show the warm weather that everyone knows helps daydreams to form. These are a part of spring. They make the sports, the teas, and the concerts seem even more like spring. But beautiful, lazy thoughts are very difficult to photograph.

Our countdown cannot be forgotten. Graduation Day did come. It rained. That kind of weather could become a tradition at graduation. Still, a fine group of seniors were graduated in a fine mist. And so, somewhat soggy, the countdown ended.



BROOKLINE

ACTIVITIES



Student Government

The School Council exists to give students an opportunity to learn about and participate in government. The Sagamore news column "From the J.F.K. Room," open meetings and assemblies, and the recently established Inter-Organization Council are all directed towards a better understanding of government organization and responsibility. The Council sponsors the B.A.T., the Winter Carnival, the selling of the New York Times, and approves club charters. Prior to the death of the late President Kennedy a proposal was made to dedicate a room at the high school in his honor. Recently, with the aid of other student organizations, the Council refurnished and dedicated its meeting room to President John F. Kennedy.

PACKARD HOUSE

Row 1: Mark Mazer, President. Row 2: Marjorie Swartz, Assistant Treasurer; Harold Stahler, Treasurer; Ellen Short, Secretary; Jay Hanflig, Vice-President.

On a bleak, snowy January afternoon in 1962, the first Packard House Council meeting was called to order at 2:05 P.M. At first it appeared to be an ordinary house council; however, this group proved itself to be a capable and conscientious one. That year it planned and sponsored the Memorial Day assembly and the "Spring Dance," and also collected dues from over 600 students in Packard House.

The pattern was set. The Packard House Council was a council of the "New Frontier" and it moved enthusiastically forward. During the next two years the Council planned dances, dues collection drives, and House assemblies. The meetings were as active as they were spirited—undoubtedly some of the filibuster masters of the future were thus nurtured.

In the senior year the Council worked even harder —running another dues drive, running House assemblies, and planning the traditional senior activities. There was no more time for arguments. Time was short and Packard House had to finish all business by graduation. Finally, after a busy, successful year, on a hot, sunny afternoon in May 1965, the last Packard House Council meeting (class of 1965) was adjourned at 2:35 P.M.

5:30 and all went well;
Our hootenanny was really swell.
All to the Winter Carnival
we're bound
To see the Winter Queen newly-crowned.

With vigor and enthusiasm, Shailer House students successfully sponsored these school wide activities. Shailer House has attained a reputation for originality as displayed in the sophomore Quadrangle-Barbecue Dance. In the following year, Shailer House will strive to exceed its present achievements.

Roberts House

During the past two years Roberts House has been busy establishing a firm basis for their junior and senior years. They have had a good start with the election of their officers, the collection of class dues, a dance, and a hootenanny.

Roberts House promises to give many contributions during the ensuing years.

Lincoln House

This freshman house started off with a bang—the Kingsmen! The scheduling of a program featuring this famous group provided house unity. The members of Lincoln House became very enthusiastic in their first activity and became involved in selling pictures, writing publicity, hanging posters, and finding groups to complement the program.

Lincoln House has started its high school years rather unusually. It will probably have three more exciting years.

BANK STAFF—Seated: Corrine Morrison. Standing: Rozanne Marel.

Learning the value of thrift is a basic idea that a school tries to instill in its students. The Bank Staff and Central Treasury serve this ideal by making the BHS savings plan and club treasuries run smoothly and by encouraging students to save, while the staff itself gains practical experience in the art of balancing finances.

Central Treasury

The marshals, easily recognized by their red and blue armbands, protect the regulations of the school. Each marshal, whether elected by his homeroom or appointed by his housemaster, is entrusted with a great deal of responsibility—he must direct corridor traffic, keep order in the lunchroom, and make certain that students obey the rules. Locker marshals provide a special service by aiding distressed students who have forgotten their keys.

Communications is the concern of the Radio-TV Broadcasting Club, the Audio-Visual Staff, and the Stage and Electric Staff. The members conduct polls, take part in Conelrad Civil Defense programs and visit broadcasting stations. The Audio-Visual Staff takes care of tape recorders and movies at the high school. The Stage and Electric Staff is also concerned with high school communications. In addition to taking care of lighting and special effects at high school productions, the members of this club are in charge of the public address system.

Book Shop

Office aides and library aides do a great deal of clerical work at the high school; they also become quite familiar with the school while delivering passes and other notes. The Book Store helps save other students the necessity of searching for books. Proceeds of the Book Store go to the scholarship fund. Tired office aides, library aides, and other students may relax while skiing down the slopes of Crotched Mountain or any other snow-covered mountain.

Ski Club

Alex Frisch, Treasurer; James Sparks, Susan Kurland, Secretary; Ronald Fishler, President; Andrew Eisenberg, Vice-President.

PLANNING for dances, making stuffed animals for little children, rehearsals for meetings and for the annual Supper Party. Many wonderful friendships are made working and relaxing in the League Room. However, a great deal of the League's work is done outside of this room. Junior and senior advisers help the freshmen class as well as new teachers every year. The girls take the eighth grade girls on a tour of BHS in the spring. The spirit of service does not end within the walls of the school; it extends into Greater Boston hospitals where the girls do volunteer work.

Key Club

EVERY year students at Brookline High fill little boxes with objects that boys and girls in different countries find very useful. The force behind this is the Junior Red Cross. Another service organization is the Key Club, which is the boys' counterpart of the Girls' League.

Archeology and Anthropology Club

Donna Steinberg, President; Paul David Brenner, Secretary.

Whether digging for remains or for philosophical concepts, members of these clubs are expressing their interest in people. The Human Relations Council helps students new to Brookline High. Through the Mental Health Club, students do volunteer work at various hospitals. The Student Forum presents informative meetings—Dan Murrow, speaking on the Massachusetts Youth Corps, Gene Pell of WBZ-TV discussing the role of news media.

Human Relations Council

Seated: Judy Meiselman, Helper; Gail Bolan, Secretary. Standing: Sandra Kosser, Vice-President; Cila Kagan, Student from Israel; Louis Gerber, President. Absent: Lucille Goldberg, Assistant Secretary.

"We serve youth that youth may learn to serve." This motto of the high school can be aptly applied to the Future Teachers of America, the Future Nurses of America, the Future Homemakers of America, and the Social Customs Club. Under the guidance of faculty members and guest speakers, students in these organizations learn ideas and techniques which they begin to use now to better serve others in the future.

Future Nurses of America

Laura Drucker, Vice-President; Ellen Gill, President; Ruth Glick, Secretary-Treasurer.

Future Teachers of America

Majorie Hickey, Treasurer; Louane Berman, Vice-President; Sydni Pearlman, President; Nancy Cohen, Vice-President; Arlene Sher, Secretary; Patricia Nyer, Vice-President.

Brookline High enjoyed a successful 5-4 season this year under the leadership of co-captains Bruce Cochrane and Ken Rosenthal. The highlight of the season was a 14-0 victory over Newton on Thanksgiving Day.

In the opening game of the season Brookline was defeated in a close game 14-0 by a powerful Weymouth team. That game was followed by two victories by Brookline in close games, 26-22 over Waltham and 6-0 over Leominster. Brookline then lost a tough one to a fine Quincy team 26-20, but followed this game with a hard-earned 20-14 victory over the always fine Arlington eleven. An injury-riddled Brookline team was then defeated by Watertown 34-14, but Brookline came back with a 14-0 win over Brockton. Brookline was then defeated 30-6 by a fine Beverly team.

Congratulations are due to the entire Brookline squad who, led by the co-captains Brian Conry, Bob Farrell, and Fred Hafferty, had a successful season despite many injuries.

BASKETBALL

Mark Mazer and Jay Hanflig, All Scholastic Guards.

Brookline High School was able to have a respectable season despite the loss of many close ball games. These losses include two last-second losses to Rindge Tech, one to Medford and one to Watertown. Brookline came up with two fine victories over a strong Weymouth team and a convincing 57-43 triumph over traditional rival Newton. The team was led by senior co-captains Mark Mazer and Jay Hanflig. Also prominent were high-scoring forwards Charles Dranetz, Herb Witten, and Bob Levine. The team also featured three promising underclassmen —juniors Stu Green and Jeff Blumenthal and sophomore Steve Rubin. With these fine underclassmen Brookline has much promise for the future.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL—Training, practice, and exposure to competition are integral parts in the maturing of an athlete. In a team sport, such as basketball, these parts mesh with the result that boys who have developed their skills strive to work together for the glory of the team rather than for personal ambition. The J.V. basketball team is the last place for boys to polish all they have learned before they become members of the varsity squad.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL—Row 1: R. Corkin, M. Forbes, L. Grant, R. Brodney, Co-Captain; R. Plotkin, J. Russo, C. Sockal. Row 2: Mr. Laakso, J. Vandenburgh, R. Gould, M. Zuker, S. Provizer, D. Showstack, J. Keaveney, B. Davies, J. Kilgallen, M. Jacobs, D. Bernstein.

Hockey

In spite of a relatively inexperienced group, Brookline's spirited hockey team finished the season successfully. Captain Barry MacCarthy and Joe Grady sparked the team to many of its victories.

Soccer

Under the auspices of Mr. Derbyshire, the exchange teacher from England, soccer was given an enthusiastic welcome by the Brookline boys. Although this year's team was not officially a varsity team, varsity recognition will be given to next year's soccer squad. Judging by the successful season enjoyed in 1964, fall of 1965 should see a new winning sport at Brookline High School.

WINTER TRACK—The winter track team overcame an inauspicious start to win two of their last three meets, and dropped the final contest only on a disputed decision. Co-captains Jim Burke (1000 yard run), Ross Coppelman (mile) and Mark Granoff (fifth place winner in the BAA 600) all performed well in the individual events; they were joined by high scorer Paul Katzeff (fifth place winner in the state 300) on the relay team which also took a BAA medal. Gene Hannigan in the two mile, Don Rosenfield in the hurdles, and John Barges in the shot put were also important winners on this year's tenacious club.

CROSS COUNTRY—Despite an unexceptional dual meet record, Brookline's cross country team was one of the fastest improving squads in the state. Led by Captain Ross Coppelman and sophomore sensation Gene Hannigan, the team took third place in the Met League and ninth in the state meet. Jim Burke was the only other senior scorer on the largely underclassmen squad. Jay Hochberg, Nathan Gilfenbaum, Doug Rodd, Carl Goldberg and the other returning harriers are looking forward eagerly to a very promising 1965 season.

Wrestling

Wrestling, the fastest growing sport in America, became varsity for the first time at Brookline High last year. This year, with eight returning lettermen and three medal winners from last year's third-place finishing team, the grapplers pose a strong threat to capture the state title. Led by co-captains Jack Alkon and Barry Finer and defending state champions Senji Izumi and Bill Barges, Brookline has already beaten last year's champ, Milton High. Under the direction of Coach David Marsh, the wrestlers have become an immediate success and are well on the way to building another winning tradition at Brookline High School.

Swimming

Led by co-captains, Fred Hafferty and Gerry Chuculate, the swimming team placed third in league competition. The Casemen won eight out of their ten meets. The last meet against Wellesley High School was very exciting, with Houlihan, Gilbert, Zane, and Myerow winning the relay. Chuculate and Donavan won the two hundred yard freestyle; Rainey and Slushberg placed second and third in the 50 yard sport. Unfortunately they lost this meet to Wellesley 48 to 47, but had better luck against Leominster, winning 48 to 47.

Gymnastics

Although this is their first year of competition, the gymnastics team has a promising future. The value of gymnastics is being recognized more and more at the high school and team members are learning valuable techniques on newly acquired equipment.

Field Hockey

Girls' field hockey is a new sport at Brookline High School. The girls put a lot of effort into the game and enjoyed a successful year.

VARSITY—Row 1: Penny Levine, Sandy McNeilly, Rose Grady, Lee Levin. Row 2: Joan Roberts, Mary McMahon, Judy Riley, Sue Power, Brenda Moran, G. G. Burns, Miss Leathem, Adviser.

Happiness is a devoted secretary.

"Your move, Thing."

Pshaw. Three legs aren't as awkward as they might seem.

You know what they say: If you're found under mistletoe, she has to kiss you.

. . . another attraction of Pepperdine College is that we are located only a short distance from Disneyland.

"See, we did wipe our feet before coming in."

When we were asked to write a letter of farewell to all of you, the thought lay heavily on our minds and hearts. How can we say goodbye after sharing so many of the joys and sorrows of probably the most important years of your lives? How can one word—goodbye—express all that we should like to say? Yet, in a sense, it can.

We are a cosmopolitan class with members having roots in countries at great distances and with diversities of culture. How is goodbye expressed in these many lands?

In Japan, the country lending us its beauty for our Prom theme, one says, "Sayonara"—"Since it must be so . . ." Our separation, one from another, must be . . .

Those of you studying Russian may have wondered at the connection between the two words "Proshchaite," meaning both "Farewell" and "Forgive" . . . For anger, for misunderstanding, for lack of fairness, forgive . . .

"Banaght lath" . . . say our Irish lads and colleens. Good luck in all you undertake, that your lives may be blessed as they bless others.

"Au revoir" . . . "Till we meet again" . . . But, lest that be too far away, "Tsai chan" . . . "See you soon" . . . You will come back soon, won't you?

South Africa and Spain will hold special meaning for us always . . . To one who is leaving, we say "Go well . . ." He who leaves replies, "Stay well . . ." Wishes for health and well-being are yours. "Adios" . . . "To God's keeping . . ." So be it . . .

The Romans greeted emperor and friends alike in words of respect, benevolence, and honor, "Ave atque vale . . ." "Hail! And fare well . . ." We do as the Romans did.

But we cannot end with goodbye. We want also to say—happily and often—hello. And, between the goodbye of the moment and the hellos of the future, we wish you—above all—peace. So we say, "Shalom . . ."
